Nice (3) The largest city on the Riviera coast, Nice is known as the "Queen of the Riviera." Founded by the Greeks, it is the most accommodating of the resort towns of Cannes and St. Tropez. With an emphasis on fine dining and high culture, Nice has more museums than any other city in France (except Paris). Because of its brilliant sunshine and liberal attitude, Nice attracted many artists and writers: Dumas, Nietzsche, Hugo, Sand and Stendhal. Matisse made his home in Nice. Sights include: promenade des Anglias, Vieux Port (harbor) with its restaurants, Vielle Ville (The Old Town), place Massena (Nice's centerpiece), the museums of Cimiez (Matisse & Chagall), the Russian Orthodox Cathedral of St. Nicholas, built by Tsar Nicholas II and the most beautiful example of Orthodoxy outside Russia. Optional full day excursion: Eze, a picture perfect hilltop village was built in the early Middle ages. The principality of Monaco is known as the playground of the rich and famous. The House of Grimaldi have ruled Monaco since 1297. e.

La Ciotat (5), a breezy Mediterranean port 18 m. east of Marseille, where the beaches, the prices and the food are better than you can imagine! Our first excursion is to Marseille, France's oldest metropolis founded by the Greeks in the 6th c. In 2012, Marseilles had the prestigious honor of being the European Capital of Culture. Marseille's panorama tour will include: Le Panier, Notre Dame de la Garde and Vallon des Auffes, We leave you in Vieux port to sample one of the famous bouillabaisse fish stews. Late afternoon, we visit Cassis, the prettiest coastal town in Provence for a glass of its famous white wine. Optional full day excursion: Avignon, the capital of Christendom in the 14th c., with a guided tour of the Palais des Papes. In the afternoon, we continue to artsy Aix-en-Provence, home of Paul Cezanne to see his Atelier.
